A Drunk Pilot

There were 102 passengers on the plane.

They were waiting for the plane to take off.

But the plane was just sitting there.

The plane could not take off without a pilot. The co-pilot was already on board. But the pilot wasn't. where was the pilot? The flight attendants didn't know. The co-pilot didn't know.

The passengers didn't know. Finally, the pilot got on the plane. He was singing and laughing.

He waved to all the passengers. He said hello.

He told them his name-three times.

His eyes were bloodshot.

His breath smelled of alcohol. He said, "Are you all ready to fly? We're going to fly! We're going to fly high into the sky!" A passenger close to him was angry. "why are you so late?" the pilot said, "I'm not late-you're early!"

He laughed at his own joke. "You're drunk!" the passenger said. He dialed 911. The police came. They talked to the pilot. They took him off the plane. He was still laughing and singing. "Mom, if the police take the pilot to jail, who will fly our plane?" a little boy asked his mother. The flight attendant announced that a new pilot would arrive shortly. Many passengers looked at their watches.

خطاب من متوفي

A couple were going on a vacation together but the wife had an emergency at work. So they agreed the husband would go as planned and his wife would meet him at the hotel the next day. When the husband got to the hotel, he checked in and thought he should send his wife a quick email letting her know he had arrived there ok. As he typed in her email address, he made a typo and his email was sent instead to an elderly mechanic's wife. It just so happened that her husband had sadly died just the day before.

He sat on a branch, shivering with cold water dripping from its body. The poor monkey tried its best to find shelter, but in vain. The leaves were not enough to save him from the rain. "Brrr! It is so cold!" said the monkey. The birds were watching all this. They felt sorry for the monkey but there was little they could do for him. One of them said, "all of us prepared for the rainy season. If you had, you would not be in this piteous situation." "How dare you tell me what to do?" said the monkey, growling at the bird. The monkey angrily pounced on the bird's nest, tore it and threw it on the ground. The bird and her chicks were helpless. The poor bird thought, "Fools never value good advice. Long ago, a hawk lived on the top of a hill.
At the foot of the hill there was a foolish crow that lived in a tree and liked to imitate. The hawk would fly down everyday in search of food. Gifted with eyes that could see long distances, The hawk would spot his prey from the hill top and then fly down to pounce upon the prey. The crow watched the hawk thinking,
"Hmmm. If the hawk can do that, I too can.
I'll show that snob that he's not special. A few days later, as the hawk was circling in the air, the crow decided to do the same. A rabbit came out of the bushes and both birds saw it.

"Hmmm. That is no great skill," thought the crow, angrily. Next moment he spotted a big fat mouse coming out of a hole. Without wasting time, the crow swooped down. Like the hawk, he tried to catch the mouse in his claws. But the mouse saw the crow and moved away, the crow crashed against the hill. "ouch!" cried the crow in pain. Just then the hawk came flying down. "I hope, now you know it is not easy to hunt and it is not easy to imitate, either," said the hawk and flew away.

His clothes were wet. He decided to sit under the same tree where the two pigeons lived. The poor wife sat by her husband's cage crying. The husband said. "Do not feel sad, dear. We now have a guest. This man is shivering and hungry. He needs your help." Hearing this, the wife flew around getting dry twigs. She made a fire for the bird-catcher. Then she looked at the bird-catcher and said, "You are our guest, since I have no food to offer, I will jump into this fire. In a few minutes I will become an edible meal for you. You can eat me." The bird-catcher was overwhelmed by the hospitality of the humble pigeon couple. He at once stopped the wife jumping into the fire. He opened the cage and set the husband free. "I have been cruel and selfish. I will never trap any bird in my net again," said the bird-catcher and went away. The two pigeons were happy to be reunited.
